

TEN SIGNS YOU'RE SICK OF THE HOLIDAYS

- You've got red and green bags under your eyes.
- You're serving reindeer pot pie.
- When you hear, "Sleigh bells ring, are you listenin'?", you scream, "No! I'm not listening!"
- You climb on your roof and start shooting carolers with your air gun.
- You think you hear your Christmas tree taunting you.
- Instead of spending time with family, you're watching some guy make photo copies.
- You're busted for running through town wearing nothing but mistletoe.
- You've got eggnog coming out of your ears.
- Your standard response, "And happy holidays to you too, you bastard".
- Two words: tinsel rash.
